Students Visit Rye Playland On Annual Excursion June 4

With fair skies above, Loughlin students embarked on the John A. Meseck for Rye Beach on June 4. The steamer departed from Pier 1, Battery Park, at 9:30 A.M. Accompanying the Loughlin men were Queen of All Saints and Our Lady of Perpetual Help High Schools.

Entertainment Provided

While on board the Meseck, the seafarers danced to the music of two bands. the Seniors, and Walt Surdak and the Sophomores. Those who were not partial to dancing, could be seen sunning themselves on the top deck or exploring the various levels of the ship.

Arrives at 12:15

As the boat docked, anxious Loughlinites rushed landward to tackle the many rides of Playland Park. For those who wished, there were swimming facilities at the park. For the majority, however, the rides and refreshments proved sufficient.

Rides Are Popular

The greatest number of students, as always, frequented the numerous amusements. Among the most popular rides were the new Merry Mixer, the roller coaster, the bumper cars, the Mouse, the Old Mill, and the Magic Carpet. The refreshment stands also captured a great buying audience.

Homeward Bound

After a day of sun and fun, the Meseck set out for Battery Park at 5:30. Exhibiting a tireless Loughlin spirit, the students crowded the dance floor once again to continue where they had left off; —And the cry of the day was "Arbey."

Loughlinites Excel In Classical Exams

The New York Classical Club has announced the results of its Seventy-seventh Scholarship Prize Examinations, conducted this year on Saturday, May 22. A total of $536.00 was awarded to eighteen participating high schools.

Loughlin Sends Twenty-three

Under the direction of Brother Cyprian Anselm, Loughlin classicists garnered thirteen awards in the three- and four-year fields. In all, twenty-three Loughlinites took part in the examination.

Cullinan Takes First

In the Latin III competition, Pat Cullinan of room 316 copped the first prize awards of $50. Dennis Cullinan placed fourth, winning $7. Other cash winners included Frank Russo and Daniel De Cicco, each recipients of $5 awards, and James Burns, $7. All hail from room 316. Second Year competition saw Rory Dolan receive a $5 award; Steve Czuchiewski, Joe De Lessio and Tom Downes received bronze charms for honorable mention.

Seniors Excel

Two four-year men, Paul Schuchman of 105 and Joseph Canamare of 116, took second and third positions, respectively, in the Latin IV competition. For their efforts, Schuchman received $25 and Canamare and Carmine Fiscina, $7 each; John Sullivan received a $5 prize. Brother Anselm was very pleased with the results and is looking forward to an even greater number of winners next year.

Seniors Attend Commencement Dance June 19, After Communion Breakfast; Class Graduation Follows On June 22

by John Wunner

Marking the close of 4 years of study and hard work at Bishop Loughlin, 400 students received their diplomas on Monday evening, June 22. The ceremonies concluded an eventful weekend highlighted by the Communion Breakfast and Commencement Dance.

Awards Presented

After a welcoming address, diplomas and several other scholastic awards were presented, followed by the valedictorian speech. The graduation was witnessed by many friends and relatives of the students.

Communion Received

On the previous Friday morning, most of the Seniors attended Mass and received Holy Communion at the church of the Assumption. A breakfast at the Towers Hotel with T. O'Keefe, Deputy Mayor of New York, as speaker, followed the Mass.

Cafeteria Scene of Dance

The last big social event for the Seniors, the Commencement Dance, was held Friday night, June 19, in the school cafeteria. The cafeteria, however, was marvlously camouflaged in a setting of a Japanese garden with a pool and a continuous waterfall. The seniors and their dates danced away the hours from 9 to 1 A.M. enjoying to the fullest their last dance on home ground.

Brother A. James, Senior Activities Moderator, was in charge of this festivity, aided by a capable committee who made this dance one to always remember. The Committee was composed of: J. Tharrington, 116, chairman; R. Vitalo, 106; R. Cini and R. Ragonese, 116; R. Bittel, and B. Rowe, 117; G. Joyner, 108; and P. Hickman, 106.

Graduates Present Gift

As is the custom of the graduating classes, a gift will be given to the school in grateful appreciation for the knowledge which they have received here. The graduating class of 1959 has collected approximately $1,000 for both the School and the Brothers' Novitiate in Rhode Island.

This graduating class is the largest ever graduated from Loughlin so far because of the accelerated classes. But the large number of graduates is a mark of credit to the lay teachers and Brothers who have instructed them. They will carry with them the reputation of Loughlin while the present Juniors, who will take their place as Seniors have the responsibility to better that reputation.

Loughlinites Receive Honors and Awards

As is customary, Loughlinites who participated in extra-curricular activities received awards in recognition of their contributions to the school. The following constitute the "1959 Loughlin Letter-Men".

Seniors Given Scholarships For Studies and Athletics

The results of the scholarship endeavors, as compiled by Brother A. Raphael, shows that 50 seniors have won over 65 scholarships; these scholarships have been obtained through their scholastic and athletic abilities.

N. Y. Regents Scholarships

Regents Science Scholarships

Four Loughlinites distinguished themselves by attaining Regents Science Scholarships: Ron Riginsburg, John Hutter, Anthony Mientek, Saverio Laudadio.

Manhattan Scholarships

Eight seniors have won scholarships to Manhattan College, a Christian Brothers' School; the list includes: Joe Thelen, Mike McCormack, Harry Insilman, Joe Ferguson, Edward Kelleher, Ron Ragonese. Joseph Canamare and Jerome Vanora have won grants-in-aid to Manhattan.

Athletic Scholarships

Due to their abilities in the field of athletics, four seniors have succeeded in obtaining scholarships. Anthony Rivezzo has won a partial scholarship to Loyola College, Baltimore. Charlie O'Donnell won a full four year scholarship also to Loyola College. John Geraghty has won an athletic scholarship to Manhattan College for his prowess in track. Bill O'Sullivan earned a scholarship for his achievements in basketball to St. John's University. Finally Charlie Zinnel has won a partial scholarship to Fordham University because of his track skills.

Other Scholarships

Several other students have won scholarships to nearby colleges. Ray Trusz will use his full scholarship at Brooklyn Poly Tech. Paul Schuchman has earned a grant to Cathedral College. St. Francis College is receiving Paul Hickman on a full four year scholarship. John Gallagher has a N.R.O.T.C. grant to Pratt College. Donald Johnson has a partial scholarship to New York University. James Brogan

Ordination of Loughlin Graduates Adds Many to Ranks of Religious

This spring twenty former Loughlinites were received into secular and religious orders. The religious orders included the Franciscans, Maryknoll Fathers, Capuchins, Carmelites, Passionists, Society of the Atonement, and the Society of Jesus.

Brooklyn Receives Six

Six alumni were ordained into the secular priesthood in Brooklyn:

Rev. John G. Bals, '51
Rev. William Carey, '51
Rev. Barry W. Frazzetta, '52
Rev. William F. Powers, '52
Rev. Dino M. Zeni, '50
Rev. Eugene J. Smykowski

Some Go to Other Dioceses

All were not from Brooklyn. Three are now in other dioceses along the eastern seaboard:

Rev. Robert P. Franklin '42 (Lt. in the Navy), Conn.

Rev. Joseph M. O'Connel, '51, Washington

Rev. Matthew L. Panzeyk, '50, Camden, N. J.

Rev. John H. Wilkenson, '50, Trenton

Orders Claim Seven

Carmelites:

Rev. Martin G. Miller, '51

Passionists:

Rev. Allan Mulligan, '49
Rev. Roderic Mescall, '43

Society of the Atonement:

Rev. Kieran F. Lewis, '50

Seven graduates were received into various religious orders of the church.

Maryknoll:

Rev. Walter J. Stinson, former Jamesonian Sports Editor

Franciscans:

Rev. Thomas A. Dunn, '49
Rev. John A. McCabe, '49
Rev. Cornelius McHugh, '49

Capuchins:

Rev. Matthew Costello, '49

Around Loughlin

RON BITTEL and BOB TYMANN

A rather notorious character (with no attachment to us) was slightly under the weather and stumbled down the 42nd Street subway stairs. After wandering around for a while he ambled back out to the street. "Where were you?", his friend asked, "I've been looking all over." Number one replied: "I was down in some guy's cellar and boy what a set of trains he's got."

One of last year's Seniors had quite a hair problem—it kept falling out. But he fortunately found a super hair-grower and his hair grew in very heavily. Why one hair alone weighed 12 pounds!

Because of the frequent use of the elevator, repairs will soon be made. The elevator will be made to stand still and the building will move up and down.

When does a doctor become annoyed?

When he loses all his patience!!!

Congratulations to Mr. Consoli and everyone who participated in the Music and Art Festival. By the way, this will be followed up by a Rock 'n Roll Concert. The following are some selections from it:

Jim Brogan and girl are seen in a jungle setting, as a ferocious-looking lion appears. The lion jumps on Jim, and the girl faces the audience and sings "Goodbye, Jimmy, Goodbye".

The scene is a classroom. On the blackboard is printed A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T V W X Y Z. The teacher asks what letters are missing. The class sings "Only U".

As dancers, costumed as various parts of the human body, such as lungs, heart, etc., sway, the orchestra plays "The Happy Organ".

Once again, the setting is a classroom. The hands of the clock are approaching 2:45. The class sings "Turn Me Loose".

The finale features Brother Stephen singing a new song: "A Matter of of Principal".

What did Tennessee?
I don't know. What?
What Arkansas.

Little Known Facts: Thirteen Loughlinites got under one umbrella and not one got wet—it wasn't raining . . . In Alabama, they can't hang a man with a moustache—they have to use a rope . . . The Board of Education suggests reading cookbook for real stirring passages . . . I beat a guy up the other morning—I got up at six and he didn't get up till seven . . . The last class reunion showed that the class of '38 had gained 3½ tons . . . There have been 35 million laws made trying to enforce ten commandments.

Brother Stephen: "It's very generous of you, Aaron, but I don't think your resignation will help the crowded school situation."

"O.K." said the man when he was asked for Omar Khayyam's initials.

Boy— "In school I learned to say "Yes, sir" and "No, sir."

Dad— "Did you?"

Boy— "Yep."

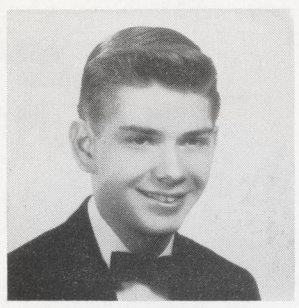
Since this is our last issue and we are departing (no applause, please!) we'd like to be remembered by this thought, "Old scribblers never die;

they just fade away."

PERSONALITIES

ED CAREY

Denny Mahoney, the accelerated Irishman from "Little Germany" in Ridgewood, migrates daily to 106 via the Myrtle Avenue "L" from Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal parish.

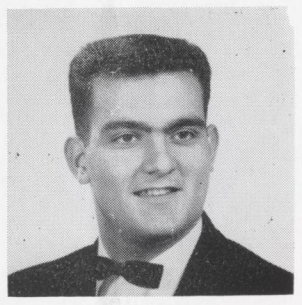


DENNY MAHONEY

A polished orator, creative writer and Oxford scholar, Denny dabbled in public speaking and dramatics, wrote for the Jamesonian and the Loughlinite, and collected six Gold "L's" during his four years in the Leo Honor Society.

Due to a frustrating experience with flowers in the play "The Red Carnation", Dennis Mahoney will turn from roses to rodents at Manhattan College and follow the less romantic paths of veterinary medicine.

His administrative talents qualified Ken Telesca for the post of executive vice-president in the constitutional anarchy governing our school. A six week speedwriting course made him an able secretary of the Leo Honor Society and the altar boys' society in Resurrection-Ascension parish, Rego Park. He got his job as photography editor of this clarion through an ad in a "timely" newspaper.

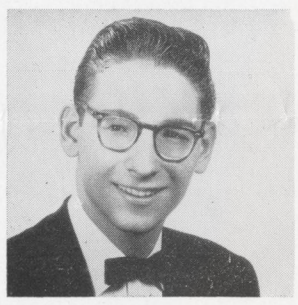


KEN TELESCA

Whenever Ken is not rushing to the engravers to meet his deadline or chasing delinquent photographers through the halls, he writes award winning feature articles, sells Tablets and polishes his six Gold "L's".

At Notre Dame Ken hopes to reduce some of his 207 lbs. while sweating out a civil engineering course.

Don't let Bob Tymann's title of copy editor fool you; he doesn't copy or edit old corny jokes for "Around Loughlin"; his corny jokes are original creations.



BOB TYMANN

In the intellectual vein, Bob is vice-president of the Leo Honor Society and a four-year member of the Gold "L" Society. In the unintellectual vein, he was a reporter for the Senior Corner and wrote the "Diary of 116" on the installment plan.

Many people want to make a million dollars and enjoy the luxuries of the elite. Bob's ambition is to write a million poems and become the first poet laureate to rise from the verdant fields of Flushing.

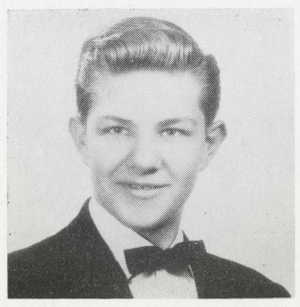
"Hey, get your finger out of that pie!" shouts Mr. Guagnini, and Ray Trusz is caught again sampling the merchandise while sliding Betty Crocker's tasty tid bits into position.

On the Senior Prom Committee Ray was chairman of the sub-committee for seating arrangements at YOU-KNOW-WHERE. Naturally, he selected one of the best tables for himself—right near the kitchen.

RAY TRUSZ

In his fourth season with the Lion mermen, "The Fish" helped our 200-yard medley relay team set a record in the Catholic Swimming Championships. Despite a severe case of water-on-the-brain, Ray has earned six gold "L" 's and has written the best essay at Loughlin in the "I Speak for Democracy" contest.

Although as president of the Purple Party, Ted Tomaszewicz (Tom a shév its) suffered defeat in the senior elections, nevertheless, his smooth swagger and favorite motto, "Speak softly and carry a big stick," remind us of another "Teddy" of White House fame.



TED TOMASZEWICZ

Ted's pen often became his "big stick" and won for him a hundred dollars, a gold medal, a New York State Regents scholarship and honors from the Mayor's Committee on Scholastic Achievement. Sometimes the Chapter Chief of the Order of the Arrow waves his mighty tomahawk in an Eagle Scout war dance.

Teddy enjoys executive powers as president of the altar boys in his parish, as chairman of his explorer Council and especially as the Jamesonian's editor-in-chief cracking his wooden sword on the heads of us slaving editors.

Summer Vacation

As the school year comes to a close, the thoughts of most students turn from the daily routine of school work to the two months of rest and relaxation which may be anticipated during the summer vacation. While we may throw the pens and pencils aside and let the textbooks decay in some well hidden sanctuary, what will happen to our religious obligations. These can not be cast aside as we do our books.

For us, the summer vacation is the initial testing period of the strength and character of our religion. The daily instructions in the truths of our faith which we received during the academic year are being put to a test. By becoming lax in our religious duties we fail the first test of our faith when we are on our own. After we complete our education there will be no one around to remind us of our religious obligations. If a student does not remain faithful during these two short months of vacation, how can he expect to practice his faith throughout the rest of his life? Will you pass the test and make the grade as a good Catholic and stalwart defender of the faith.

There are two things which Catholic students should endeavor to accomplish during their lives. Faithfulness to the ideals of Catholicism is the first; while the furtherance of education is the second.

Now then, concerning the ideals of Catholicism, students should strive to live as good Catholics so that they may present an accurate picture of their faith. This task may be accomplished daily, almost without thinking, by practicing Christian conduct in all things that are done. While in transit, consideration of others; in school, respect for teachers and authority; at home, aid and respect for teachers and elders; in sports or athletics, sportsmanlike conduct and speech.

Taking the second, furtherance of education, perhaps should apply to all Catholics because there is never any set standard for education. Therefore, there only remains a necessity for continuing all studies begun, and also for attempting to learn as much as possible. For only by continued studies can anyone become more perfect in knowledge, and as a result, closer to God who is all-perfect in knowledge.

Brother C. Richard Announces Final School Intramural Program Results

Frank Lisciandro

Brother C. Richard, moderator, has announced the final results of all school intramural activities. This year's program was expanded to encompass the Senior, Sophomore, Junior, and Freshman classes with basketball, table tennis, bowling, and softball being offered.

Table Tennis Introduced

This year, for the first time, a table tennis program was offered in the school. Greg Tocci, 311, a member of both the United States Table Tennis Association and the current New York champion table tennis team, organized the event.

On June 2, Ed Bowes of 325, the Junior champ, won the school title by defeating Hadhazy, the Freshman champ. The Soph winner was Kalinowski, 326, and Morrisroe, 117, won the Senior title.

Senior Results

Class 116A won the Senior basketball crown with 106B a close second. Brennan, Conklin, and Theilman sparked the 106 team to victory and their 8-0 record. Theilman with a 14 point per game average led the 106 team.

The softball championship was garnered by 311. Led by Mucaria, Mitchel, Farley and Baglino, the team defeated 312 in an extra inning, rain soaked game.

In the 3B bowling league Tomitz, Genovese, Higgins, Dahm, Sacco, and O'Grady comprised the 317B championship team. Tomitz rolled a 222 for league high game and O'Grady's 158 was good enough for league high average.

Team 312A proved to be the junior bowling champs with 310A second. Bill Talarek 312, had high game of 214 and high average of 152.

The junior basketball intramurals were won by 306A and 317B. The 306 teamb eat 312A in the A league finals, and 317 edged out 306B in the B league.

Sophomore Results

The Soph turnout was so large that two leagues on a meeting on Tuesday and one on Wednesday were formed. In the Tuesday league, managed by Roman of 417, 406A with a 62-8 record was first and 408A second. Tursellind, 411, rolled a 242 for high game and 371 for high series; Cote of 408 led the league with a 153 average.

Team 412A annexed the title in the Wednesday league with 410 second. Zehnla had high average of 135 and Piro high game with a 187. Rouff of 414 organized and managed the league.

Varsity Nine Finish Sixth; Compile 6-9 League Mark

The Lion Varsity Nine, compiling a 6-9 record, finished sixth in the CHSAA league. Since many games were lost in extra innings and other defeats were by a one run margin, this record is not a true indication of the team's abilities.

Lose Tight Games

Included in these close games were a 2-1 loss to St. John in 10 innings, a 3-1 defeat at the hands of the champs, St. Francis, and a 3-2 bow to Molloy in fourteen innings in which Ed Kata went all the way yielding but one walk.

Rhode Island Trip

The Lions also made one of their infrequent road trips but suffered a 3-2 loss at the hands of La Salle of Providence, a Christian Brothers' school.

Ed Kata's pitching and the team batting average of .300 have been two bright spots in the season play. Swienezewski lead the hitting department with Bryan, Kanther and Kata close behind.

Wait"ll Next Year

Sending up that age old cry, coach Tedesco was quoted as saying, "We expected to do a lot better but you can't blame it on the boys; we lost some very close games. We should be pretty decent next year, we have some pretty good kids coming up."

Departing Players

This year's graduating class will take with it a number of the vasity players. Among those who will leave include Joe Liguori, Charlie O'Donnell, Ed Kata, Dennis Cameron, Richard O'Conner, Bill Kanther and George Bryant.

The Lion Cindermen climaxed their winning season by annexing the CHSAA Outdoor Title on May 31 at Randall's Island. The Lions tallied 33 markers for the victory. Close behind were the St. Francis Terriers with 31¾ points.

CHSAA Outdoor Champs pose with trophies

Hasset and Geraghty Break Records

John Geraghty and Dennis Hasset, two seniors competing in their final CHSAA meet, broke both the Outdoor standards and all-time Loughlin records.

Geraghty was challenged after the first half. His 4:21.1 clipped half a second off the record time set by Tom Dempsey of Stepinac in 1958. Hasset, the first Lion to vault over twelve feet, left a severe mark for all future vaulters to aim for, when he soared to a hight of 12′ 8¾″.

Ty Pannell also contributed to the Lion's score with his double victory in the high jump and the hurdles. Charlie Zinnel added points when he crossed the tape second in the 100-yd. dash, timed at 10.2 the 100 yd. dash, timed at 10.2 seconds. The 880 yd. relay team composed of McCormick, Roller, Ottley and Schreiner were third in a close race. The team was timed at 1:32; the winning time being La Salle's 1:31.7.

Richy Christopher, freshman, entered as an individual in the 220 yd. open, finished fourth. Maurice Reid finished fifth in the 880 yd. run. Matt "Whale" Schimmenti started the Lion victory march by scoring in two field events. He tossed the shot 52′ 11¾″ for fourth place and whipped the discus 119′ 7″ for fifth place.

Pannell Breaks Schenectady Record

The Lions had previously won the Schenectady meet, in which all New York State high schools compete.

Schimmenti put the shot 51′ 6″ for fourth place and Pannell tied for first in the high jump with a spring of 6′ 1″. Ty then soared over the timbers, winning the 120 yd. high hurdles in 14.5 seconds, setting a new meet and school record. He also holds the school 60 yd. high hurdles record.

Hasset tied for first in the pole vault with a flight of 12′; Geraghty continued his winning streak by copping first honors in the mile with a 4:26.1, and the 880 yd. relay team of Zinnell, McCormick, Ottley and Christopher, came through with a third place.

Tennis Team Nets 3-4 League Record

The tennis team, coached by Brother A. Victor, has annexed a 3-4 record for the season. Loughlin met defeat at the hands of Fordham (5-0), Xavier (5-0), Iona (5-0), and Chaminade (3-2). The squad rectified themselves by trouncing All Hallows (5-0), St. Francis (4-1), and St. John's (4-1).

McKay Bows

In the Fordham Tournament Kevin McKay lost to the second seeded player, Hugh O'Donnell by scores of 7-5, 9-7. In the freshmen division our heralded doubles team of Eric Alleyne and Peter Hadhazy lost to the first seeded team 12-10.

Awards Given

Awards were given to the hard-working racketmen June 5th. Major letters were presented to 14 players. Trophies were given to Kevin McKay (Outstanding Player), and to Eric Alleyne and Peter Hadhazy (Outstanding Freshman).

New Frosh Sign

This year's Junior and Sophomore members will be playing next year along with 25 of the incoming Frosh who have already signed up for the team. During the summer vacation most of the Varsity and some of the Frosh Team will play in the Eastern Lawn Tennis Association Meet. In the fall the first big match will be the Catholic High Schools' Championship, which we should win as we did in 1958. On April 16, 1960, our classic game with the plebes at West Point will be played.

Keglers Cop Second Place In CHSAA City Tournament

The Varsity bowling team, under the auspices of Brother August Martin, defeated Power Memorial in the City Semi-Finals, but was edged by Manhattan Prep in the final match for the championship.

Lions Win Play-off Berth

At the conclusion of their 15 games schedule, the Lion keglers had compiled a record of 11 wins and only 4 setbacks, thus earning the right to meet Power Memorial in the semi-finals of the city championship. The Lion team, consisting of J. DeRusso, M. Kilgannon, J. Perciballi, J. Lazarck, P. Kanuck, dropped the first game by a score of 933-841, but came back to take the second game 853-761. By so doing, they forced a third and final play-off game. The Loughlin keglers went on to win the play-off by a slim margin of 35 pins, thus capturing a berth in the city finals.

Keglers Edged in Finals

The Lion bowlers then met Manhattan Prep at the Mount Carmel Alleys. In the first game the Lions were set back by a margin of about 100 pins. In the second and final game Loughlin's keglers came back strongly and defeated Manhattan Prep, but could not overcome the lead of 100 pins lost in the first game.

Spike Shoe Club Holds Reunion Dinner to Honor Track Team

Loughlin's Spike Shoe Club held its annual track dinner on Saturday, June 6. This dinner, a victory celebration for this track team, as well as a reunion of old members of this club, was run under the direction of Brother James.

George Eastment Speaks

The evening had its highlight when George Eastment, Lion track coach for many years, spoke of his recent trip to Russia. He traveled behind the Iron Curtain as the coach of a teaam of American track stars. Also present were Jim McHugh, Terrier coach of '44, J. Harrington, Hayes coach of '45 and many former Lion track stars such as T. Walby, P. Beyor, V. Dixion, C. Heeg, D. Sullivan, and R. Quinlan.

Current Team Praised

The evening started at 6 with a cocktail party in the school library. At 7 a Roast Beef Dinner was served in the cafeteria. Throughout the course of the entire evening this current track team received many words of praise. Brother A. Stephen, Mr. Eastment and others cited the outstanding achievement of this year's team, such as this copping of both CHSAA outdoor and indoor title, winning the Mayor Meet, second place at the Penn Relays and first place in the Brooklyn-Long Island outdoor and indoor meets.

Third Place Gained By Handball Team

Loughlin's handball team, by virtue of its impressive 10-4 record, has finished the season in possession of 3rd place, behind All Hallows and Power Memorial.

The driving force behind Loughlin's powerful onslaught in the singles division was its captain, Grosso (119), ably seconded by A. Venius (117). In the doubles competition, the leading players proved to be Bill Kane and Pete Venius, closely followed by Tom Roen (117) and Stan Los (117). Backing up the team were subs Embryo Morgan (119) and Steve Byrne (311).

Victories

Among Loughlin's victims were Cathedral (2-0), Fordham (2-0), Hayes (2-0) and Tolentine (2-0). The team held All Hallows and Rice to a tie, while suffering its only reverse at the hands of Power Memorial (0-2). Among the outstanding achievements were the stunning victory of Grosso over J. Hopkins of All Hallows, considered the top player in the league.

Brother B. Michael, moderator, said, "There are many fine handball players in school; if you can play, come on out and be on a winning team."

Jamesonian Selects Editors For Forthcoming Semester

Brother Christopher Charles and the present editorial staff of the Jamesonian have selected from its junior staff members the editors for the next school year.

New Editors

Bob Romanyshyn will assume the position of Editor-in-Chief held by Ted Tomaszewicz. Stepping into other editorial positions will be John Szeligowski, News Editor; Frank Lisciandro, Sports Editor; Ross Baiera, Feature Editor; William Lundquist, Assistant Editor; Thomas Mullady and Stanley Dorosewicz, Copy Editors; Peter Cirasole, Business Manager; Frank Genova, Chief Photographer.

The editors-elect have been instructed for the past few months in the management of an efficient newspaper. Under the guidance of the present staff the juniors have published this edition of the Jamesonian.

The outgoing editors include Ted Tomaszewicz, Joe Aliberti, Bob Burns, Ed Carey, Walt Pieper, Bob Tymann, Ron Bittel, and Ken Telesca.

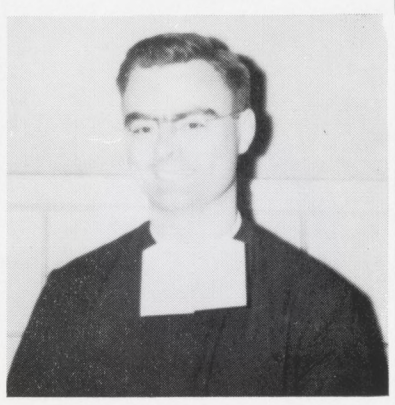
Last but not least, this column devotes its eight inches to Loughlin's official school clarion, the Jamesonian, with grateful recognition to its moderator, Brother Christopher Charles.

One Day in '28

During the roaring Twenties, under the banner of St. James, the first issue came rolling off the presses in 1928, five years before Loughlin came into existence as a high school. Each year since that time a new staff has inherited the task of heading the paper, assisted by a total of forty reporters, photographers, and typists.

About three to four weeks before the Jamesonian is distributed, the initial stage of its existence begins. This includes the gathering of topics which will make up the meat of the paper. These topics are then given as assignments to reporters who interview various faculty members and write the details into a story. After the stories are turned in, the page editor takes over. It is his job to correct and rewrite the stories. These stories are typed up and sent to the printer. When the stories are in the form of galleys, the page editor places them on dummy page in the desired style. The dummy is sent to the printer, proofs are made and corrected, and the final copy comes off the presses into the hands of eager minded Loughlinites.



Brother Christopher Charles

Over ten awards have been garnered by the present staff, including first place at the Columbia Press Association and six awards at the Diocesan Press Conference. Faithfully recording the achievements of Loughlin, the Jamesonian has been a favorite among Loughlin students.

Leo Honor Society Elects New Officers

Meeting in the auditorium May 29, the members of the Leo Honor Society chose the officers for next year. Bob Romanyshyn, 316, received the highest number of votes and will succeed Ed Kelly, 117, the current president.

Others Elected

The five other offices of the Society were also filled in the election. Frank Russo was chosen vice-president and Marty Hannon, secretary. Andy McKenna, Bernie Toesland and Jim Spengler were elected to the executive council or planning committee. All the officers and the committeemen were elected from class 316.

Brother Raphael, the Society's moderator, and Ed Kelly, its president, presided at the elections in which only juniors were permitted to vote. The method of election was a six man ballot system; each member submitted a list of six candidates, selected in order of preference.

Officers and Executives Of Benilde Club Selected

The Executive Board of the Benilde Club, under the direction of Brother B. Steven, has selected, with the approval of its members, the officers of next term.

Selected Board

Kevin Shine, former vice-president, will succeed Glenn Mehrtens as president and Allen Placa, former secretary, will assume Shine's position as vice-president. Brian Connel, a new officer, will assume the job of secretary. A corresponding secretary will be chosen from the new freshmen in the fall. Besides the officers a group of appointed members will comprise the Executive Committee whose job it is to aid the officers in their duties and to help plan club activities.

Recent Speaker

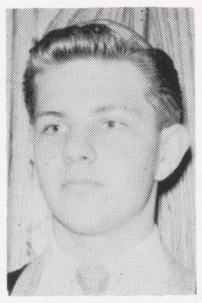
At a recent meeting of the Benilde Club, Brother A. Thomas, a well known speaker among the Brothers, gave a talk to the members on the importance of guidance when deciding on a vocation. Brother also commented on the fine character of the members of the Benilde Society and stated that the members of the club possess the virtue of charity.

Heart of the Matter

THEODORE TOMASZEWICZ

AS has been surmised, the coming Ecumenial Council called by Pope John XXIII will no doubt concern itself, at least partly, with Protestantism and the "Reformation."

Many Catholics, however, have the wrong impression concerning the English "Reformation." In the first instance, the "Reformation" was not a reformation of anything; but, it was a schism from the true Church of Rome. Nothing could be more inaccurate than to call a denial of Rome's authority a reformation. Nothing was corrected, though wrongs were initiated.



TOMASZEWICZ

King Henry VIII, desirous of a divorce from Catherine of Aragon, was the initiator of the English revolt against the Pope. Earlier, Pope Julius II in 1503 had granted to Henry a dispensation to marry his brother's widow, Catherine. When she had not borne Henry a male heir, he asked for a divorce on the grounds the original marriage was null and void. The succeeding Pope, Clement VII, who was petitioned for the divorce, announced that the dispensation granted and the marriage were valid.

Thus, Archbishop Cranmer, who had sworn allegiance to Henry, came to the aid of his king and dissolved the marriage bond. Because the Pope refused to grant him a divorce, Henry decided the Church of England should not be directed by a foreign ruler. Henry, therefore, issued the infamous Act of Supremacy, whereby the King and succeeding rulers became the physical head of the Church of England.

Now then, two things regarding the institution of the Church of England must be noted. First, Archbishop Cranmer was never a true successor of the Apostles; therefore, he did not have any ecclesiastical authority. When Cranmer, previous to his consecration swore before a notary and witnesses, that his oath of office was but a mere set of words, his authority was invalidated. Second, most historians who are partial to the English Church, contend that neither Henry VIII nor the English People were told that they were in schism. Pope Clement VII died at the beginning of the "schism", but his successor, Paul III, excommunicated Henry and placed the country under interdict in 1533. Thus the Pope knew of the schism and had taken steps to correct it, contrary to the belief of numerous historians and English Church officers.

Both the previous facts are very vital, because English Protestants contend that Cranmer was a true bishop and that the English Church was never told that it was in wrong. Thus to effect any reunion between the Church of Rome and the English Church, the English people must recognize the truth of these facts.

Possibly then, the Ecumenical Council will initiate some type of conference or council to discuss the problem with English Churchmen. Although they are a small percentage of the world religion, any return of the schismatic Church will aid greatly in furthering the the true Church of Rome.
